Development is a key concept in Western culture and philosophy (cf. Nisbet 1969; Williams 1985) that figures in anthropology in two different ways. In this second sense, the term is especially associated with the international projects of planned social change set in motion in the years surrounding World War II, which gave birth to â€œdevelopment agenciesâ€™, â€œdevelopment projectsâ€™, and, ultimately, to â€œdevelopment studiesâ€™ and â€œdevelopment anthropologyâ€™.
