The writing process is a mystery to most people. Even some of the most successful writers I’ve met have no idea how to communicate how they do what they do! If you ask them for advice on how to become a better writer, they’ll give you vague answers like “just write more” or “find something that inspires you to write.” And while both of those answers ring true and are indeed powerful for those who understand and use them, this common advice is far too vague for most writers to get the best results we possibly can. What stops most writers from finishing their book isn’t a lack of hard work or in Learn to read by. Creating and Sharing Books. Get started. “I absolutely love WriteReader.
