These days come after the declaration of the school result. As the holidays began, I was enthused to plan for the period. I did not have to think much of the examination. I was only thinking how to spend the vacation pleasantly, in visiting places, in reading of literature. I sought permission from my parents to pay a visit to Puri, a place that has fame all over the world. I had a desire to visit an ancient temple. I had heard of the attractive features of Puri with all its pictures que beauty from
