8. Causes of Vellore Mutiny

   - Sir John Cradock, the commander-in-chief, with the approval of Lord-William Bentinck, the Governor of Madras, introduced a new form of turban, resembling a European hat.
   - Wearing ear rings and caste marks were also prohibited.
   - The sepoys were asked to shave the chin and to trim the moustache.
   - The sepoys felt that these were designed to insult them and their religious and social traditions.
   - The English treated the Indian sepoys as their inferior.
   - On the eve of the Mutiny at Vellore Fettah Hyder, the first son of Tipu, tried to form an alliance against the English and sought the help of the Marathas and the French.
   - Thus, there was the desire to revive the old Muslim rule in this region.
   - The sepoys were aware of the tragic end of Puli Thevar, Khan Sahib, Kattabomman, Marudu Brothers, Tipu Sultan and others. Hence there were ill-feelings about the British in the minds of the sepoys.

9. Causes of The Great Revolt Of 1857

   a) Political Causes
   - Anti-British feelings were particularly strong in those regions like Burma, Assam, Coorg, Sind, and the Punjab which were unjustly annexed to the British Empire.
   - The Doctrine of Lapse, particularly its practical application by Lord Dalhousie, produced grave discontent and alarm among the native princes, who were directly affected.
b) Economic Causes

- The huge drain of wealth, the destruction of its industry and increasing land revenue had become the common features of the latter half of the eighteenth century.
- The British damaged the Indian trade and manufacture by imposing a high tariff in Britain against Indian goods, and by encouraging all means the import of British goods to India.
- In England the ruin of the old handloom weavers was accompanied by the growth of the machine industry.
- But in India the ruin of the millions of artisans and craftsmen was not accompanied by any alternative growth of new industrial forms.

c) Social Causes

- A general alarm was raised among the Hindus and Muslims by the activities of the Christian missionaries.
- The educational institutions established by the missionaries inculcated western education and culture in the place of oriental learning.
- The native population felt that they were losing their social identity.

d) Military causes

- The Indian sepoys in the British Indian army nursed a sense of strong resentment at their low salary and poor prospects of promotion.
- The British military officers at times showed least respect to the social values and religious sentiments of Indian sepoys in the army.
- Another important cause of the sepoys’ dissatisfaction was the order that abolished the foreign allowance or batta when they served in foreign territories.

e) Immediate Causes

- The new Enfield rifle had been introduced for the first time in the Indian army.
- Its cartridges had a greased paper cover whose end had to be bitten off before the cartridge was loaded into the rifle. The grease was composed of fat taken from beef and pig.
- The religious feelings of the Hindu and Muslim sepoys were terribly wounded.
- The sepoys believed that the government was deliberately trying to destroy their religious and cultural identity. Hence they raised the banner of revolt.
10. Causes for the decline of Indian handicrafts industry

a) Industrial Revolution
   - The policies followed by the English East India Company proved to be highly detrimental to the Indian handicrafts industry. The Indian market was flooded with the cheap finished goods from Britain.
   - It resulted in a steep decline in the sale of Indian products both within and outside of the country.
   - Moreover, goods from England could only be brought by the English cargo ships.
   - As a result of all these policies, the Indian textiles could not enter the British market, whereas the Indian market was flooded with British goods.

b) Politicians
   - With the rise of British paramountcy in India, the process of decline in the power and status of Indian rulers had set in. Thus, the demands for the domestic luxury goods like royal attires, armory and objects of art by the Indian royalty also reduced drastically.

c) Royal People
   - So, with the disappearance of the traditional dynasties, their nobility also passed into oblivion. This led to a sharp decline in the demand for traditional luxury goods.

d) Powerlooms
   - Power looms replaced handlooms.
   - In India also the advent of machines led to the decline of handicraft as now the machine-made products were available at cheaper rate and more goods could be produced in much lesser time.

e) Communication
   - The new communication and transport facilities brought about a revolution in public life.
   - Railways and steamer services were introduced convenient to carry on with the normal transportation.
   - Indian artisans and craftsman who lost their only means to livelihood.

e) World Peace

- Nehru followed the principles of Non-aligned Movement.
- India plays an active role in international bodies such as the Common Wealth and the United Nations Organization.
13. Examine the circumstances leading to the American War of Independence.

a) Seven Year’s War
   • The end of the Seven Years War in 1763 and the transfer of Canada from France to England removed the French fear from the minds of the Americans. There was no need to depend on their mother country against any possible attack by the French. Therefore, the American colonies decided to face the colonial attitude of the British.

b) Granville Measures
   • When Granville was the Prime Minister of England a series of Acts were passed affecting the interests of the American colonies. The Sugar Act of 1764 increased the duties on the sugar which affected the interests of the colonies. The Stamp Act of 1765 insisted on the use of British stamps in commercial and legal documents of the colonies. They raised the slogan “No Taxation without Representation” thus insisting American representation in the English Parliament.

c) Boston Massacre
   • On 5th March 1770, five Americans were killed by the British soldiers at Boston during the protest. It was known as the Boston Massacre.

d) Boston Tea Party
   • In 1773, a new Tea Act was passed imposing a tax on import of tea. It was a symbol to show that the British Parliament had the right to tax the colonies. But Americans showed their protest. A group of Americans dressed as Red Indians, climbed on the ships and threw away the tea bundles into the sea at the Boston harbour.

e) Philadelphia Congress
   • The American colonists decided to unite in their fight against the British. In September 1774, the first Continental Congress was held at Philadelphia. It was attended by the representatives of the twelve colonies except Georgia. The second Continental Congress met in May 1775 at Philadelphia. Delegates from all the thirteen colonies attended this Congress.

- As a last attempt, an Olive Branch Petition was sent to the British king George III, who rejected it. The king proclaimed that the American colonies were in a state of rebellion.

14. Enumerate the various causes of the First World War.

a) System of Alliances
- Before 1914 Europe was divided into two camps. It was Germany which created the division in European politics before World War I.
- Bismarck formed the three Emperors League by making alliance with Russia. Later Germany did not care for Russia. Hence Russia left. But Germany continued its alliance with Austria alone. This was known as Dual alliance. After Italy joined in this alliance, it became a Triple alliance.
- In 1904 she made alliance with France. In 1907 Russia joined this alliance. This had resulted in Triple Entente. Thus Europe was divided into two camps. The secret nature of these alliances brought about the war of 1914.

b) Alsace-Lorraine
- The desire for the people of France to get back Alsace-Lorraine was also a cause for the outbreak of First World War.
- It was Bismarck who had taken away Alsace-Lorraine from France and annexed them with Germany in 1871.
- The result was that there grew animosities between these two countries. It was this reason that forced Germany to take steps to isolate France by making alliances with other countries.

c) Militarism
- The countries in Europe had been increasing their armies and navies.
- This was the main reason for universal fear, hatred and suspicions among the countries of Europe.
• In Europe, England and Germany were superior in Navy. There were competitions between these two countries in naval armaments.
• For every ship built by Germany, two ships were built by England.

d) Narrow Nationalism
• Narrow Nationalism was also a cause for the war. The love of the country demanded the hatred of another.
• For instance, love of Germany demanded the hatred of France. Likewise the French people hated the German people.
• In Eastern Europe narrow nationalism played a greater role.

e) The desire of Italy to recover the Trentino
• The desire of Italy to recover the Trentino and the area around the port of Trieste was also a cause for war.
• The Italians considered that these areas were inhabited by Italians. But they were still part and parcel of Austria-Hungary.
• They cried for the redemption of these territories. Italy also entered into a competition with Austria to control the Adriatic Sea.

f) Immediate Cause
• The immediate cause was the assassination of Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand who was heir to the Austrian throne. Arch Duke Francis Ferdinand and his wife were assassinated by Serbians in the Bosnian capital Sarajevo when they paid a visit to this city on 28th June 1914. The murder of their crown prince and his wife resulted in an ultimatum being sent to Serbia for immediate compliance of certain terms. Serbia’s reply did not pacify Austria-Hungary. Hence, Austria-Hungary backed by Germany declared war on Serbia.

15. Give an account of the causes of the Second World War.

a) Treaty of Versailles
• Germany was defeated in the First World War. She was not invited to the Paris Peace Conference. Germany was forced to sign a harsh and humiliating treaty. German territories were taken away from her. She was deprived of her colonies. Her navy was completely disbanded. Her army was reduced considerably. The Weimar Republic was not in a position to solve the post-war problems. The German people decided to take revenge for their humiliation.

b) Rise of Dictatorships
   • The inter-war period witnessed the rise of dictatorships in Europe. The inter-war period is otherwise called the period of dictators. Germany, Italy, Spain and Japan witnessed the rise of dictators.
   • Japan became a partner of Hitler and Mussolini by signing the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis. This alliance disturbed world peace and the Second World War started.

c) Militarism
   • Germany under the dictatorship of Hitler increased its military strength. Owing to the immense increase in armaments and the development of militarism, the Second World War became inevitable.

d) Imperialism
   • The policy of imperialism was one of the causes for the Second World War. It was this same feeling of imperialism which played a dominant role during the First World War. Germany and Japan, who were more imperialistic than the Allied powers, simply ignored the decisions of the Paris Peace Conference. They made their efforts to expand their respective territories. Japan attacked Manchuria and captured it from China. Mussolini occupied Abyssinia and launched a series of aggressive activities.

e) Failure of the League of Nations
   • The League could not contain the Japanese annexation of Manchuria and Italian invasion of Abyssinia. Hitler’s activities posed a challenge to the League. Thus, the failure of the League of Nations to control aggressive countries was a major cause for World War II.
f) Colonialism

- There was also a race for colonies among the European countries in order to obtain raw materials and markets for their industrial growth. This trend continued among these powers even after the First World War.

16. Estimate the role of U.N.O. in maintaining the world peace.

a) The Problem of Iran

- On 1st January 1946, Iran presented a complaint against Russia before the U.N.O. The root cause of the conflict was stationing of Russian troops in Iran.
- U.N.O. took a very strong line as a consequence of this, the Russian troops were withdrawn from Iran, which had been stationed there for many years.
- This was the first and the most important achievement of the U.N.O.

b) Syria and Lebanon

- Similar complaint was also made by Syria and Lebanon before the U.N.O. Both of them requested the U.N.O. that British and French troops should be immediately removed from their respective states.
- The Security Council, therefore, made its efforts and at last it succeeded in securing the withdrawal of British and French troops from those states.

c) Indonesia

- After the end of the Second World War, the nationalists living in Indonesia established a republican government.
- But the Dutch living in the colonies of Java and Sumatra rose in rebellion against the nationalists.
- The Security Council issued a cease-fire order to both sides. The Dutch agreed to grant full independence to Indonesia.

d) The Palestine Problem

- After the end of the First World War, Palestine had been handed over to Great Britain under the mandate system.
But the struggle arose between the Arabs and the Jews which created disturbance and tension in Palestine.

After the Second World War U.N.O. appointed a special committee to study the problem of Palestine.

The Committee recommended immediate partition of Palestine into three parts - an Arab State, a Jewish State and the City of Jerusalem which was to be governed by the Trusteeship Council of the U.N.O.

Thus, an independent state of Israel was established for the Jews in 1948.

e) The Kashmir Problem

This problem arose between India and Pakistan. Both of them fell into a state of great rivalry on this issue.

This problem was brought to the notice of the U.N.O. It made its best efforts to remove hostility and differences between them.

17. Examine the causes of the French Revolution of 1789.

a) Political Causes

Louis XIV was a strong and powerful ruler of the Bourbon dynasty. His wars ruined the economy of France. His successors Louis XV and Louis XVI were weak administrators. Louis XIV's wife and queen, Marie Antoinette interfered too much into the administration.

b) Social Causes

The French society was based on inequality. The society consisted of three major divisions, the nobles, clergy and the common people. It was said: "the nobles fight, the clergy pray and the people pay."

c) Economic Causes

The king appointed financial experts Turgot and Jacques Necker as Director-General of Finances. They tried to curtail royal expenditure and improve the income to the government. But their measures did not receive the support of the nobles.
d) Impact of the American War of Independence
   • The independence of the thirteen American colonies from England provided a boost to the French people.

e) Immediate Cause
   • The bankruptcy of French treasury was the starting point of the French Revolution. Louis XVI was faced with a serious financial situation. There was also no alternative but to propose new taxes. So, Louis XVI summoned the States General on 5th May 1789.
