The American Heritage Illustrated History Of The Presidents

Michael R Beschloss

The American Heritage New Illustrated History of the United States. Volumes 1-16. n/a. The hundreds of illustrations, including maps, paintings, and photographs, are central to the concept of the book, and caption writer Julie Fenster's contributions (some of which might be termed "mini-essays") can't be overlooked. A potential flaw in books of this sort is that overly flashy design can impede the narrative, but the American Heritage History of the United States succeeds admirably in being both attractive and functional in its execution. - - Robert McNamara.
