Sir Robert Peels Administration: 1841 - 1846

Travis L Crosby

Sir Robert Peel's Administration, 1841-1846 was the marked feature of his last administration, though he is best known today for the reorganisation of the London Police force. The early members of this force were called Peelers, after him. He was born at Bury in Lancashire, one of eleven children of Sir Robert Peel, 1st Baronet (died 1830) and his first wife Ellen Yates. His father was a Member of Parliament and moved his family down to London and bought Drayton Manor. Robert junior was educated at Harrow School and Christ Church Oxford. In 1809 he beca
