Public Communication: The New Imperatives
Future Directions For Media Research

Marjorie Ferguson

Conference topics: 1. Communication Theory and Methodology: communication and media theories, approaches to media research, modernizing the methods of media research, qualitative and quantitative methods of media research; discourse analysis: theory and practice; research techniques for the media industry. 2. Public Relations and Organizational Communication: old and new tools for integrated marketing and PR communication.