The Cold War dominated the world political arena for forty-ve years. Focusing on the international system and on events in all parts of the globe, Melvyn P. Lefer and David S. Painter have brought together a truly international collection of articles that provide a fresh and comprehensive analysis of the origins of the Cold War. Moving beyond earlier controversies, this edited collection focuses on the interaction between geopolitics and threat perception, technology and strategy, ideology and social reconstruction, national economic reform and patterns of international trade, and decolonizat...
