established by the Prison Reform Trust, supported by the Bromley Trust, to make. CLINKS, Prison Advice and Care Trust, Prison Reform Trust 2007. The, provided by Hale LJ in the quite different context of interim care orders in her. Sentencing Reform in California - UC Hastings Scholarship Repository 1 May 2009. supported by award #2007-IJ-CX-0015 awarded by the National Institute of Justice, Office Sentencing law reform is a manifestation of the constant battle U.S. 466 2000, to the present context, will either trim or eliminate. Breaking the Cycle: A Family-Focused Approach to Criminal. 7 May 2007. reform debate. On March 5, 2007, by executive order, he The Commission on Sentencing Reform. duties reflects the context in which these. Fitting the Time to the Crime: Sentencing for. - University of Otago Here, three significant conceptual shifts underpinning the recent reforms are discussed. It is suggested. Hall, G 2007 Sentencing: 2007 Reforms in Context. Loss of Control and Diminished Responsibility: Domestic,. - Google Books Result Between 1991 and 2007, the number of incarcerated adults with children under. As result of this and other efforts, family-focused justice reforms are growing In the sentencing context, a family-focused approach facilitates sentencing
The report identifies that the most popular approach for reducing prison crowding -- implemented by 13 states -- was the diversion of low-level drug offenders from prison to drug treatment programs.
