The Penguin Anthology Of Australian Women's Writing

Dale Spender

Exploring such traditional themes as lovesick yearning and fated doom, and considering subjects as diverse as the etiquette of falling in love with slave-girls and the terrors of the sea, this compelling anthology of poetry and prose brilliantly illuminates a body of writing that has been unjustly neglected by the west for centuries.

“This is a comprehensive survey of Australian poetic achievement, ranging from early colonial and indigenous verse to contemporary work, from the major poets to those who deserve to be better recognised. It is wide in scope and bold in ambition. With an introductory essay by John Kinsella and biographical notes for all poets, The Penguin Anthology of Australian Poetry presents the full measure of Australian poetic talent. It is rich, daring and illuminating.” -- Provided by publisher.
