Sara Jeannette Duncan: Novelist Of Empire

Thomas E. Tausky

Empire But I guess then I wouldn't have been reading a novel about imperialism. The Pool in the Desert - Google Books Result Clara Thomas says of Duncan: All of her fiction is written from the peculiar inside-outside view of the colonial observer and participant in empire.61 But Cinderella writes back: Sara Jeannette Duncans Canadian girl Cousin Cinderella or, Sara Jeannette Duncan: novelist of empire: Thomas E Tausky, Posts about Sara Jeannette Duncan written by CWA. Empire Girls: the colonial heroine comess of age by Mandy Treagus University of Adelaide Press 2014 is Complete summary of Sara Jeannette Duncan's The Imperialist. eNotes plot summaries cover all the significant action of The Imperialist. Tausky, Thomas. Sara Jeannette Duncan: Novelist of Empire. Port Credit, Ontario, Canada: P. D. Meany, 1980. Homework Help. 244. $18.95 Sara Jeannette Duncan is best known in English Canada for The Imperialist, her 1904 novel set in a fictionalized version of her birthplace, Brantford, Ontario. The Pool in the Desert, first published one year before this novel appeared, is a collection of stories that, like The Imperialist and so much of Duncan’s writing, considers the implication in imperial ideology and colonization of white Anglo-imperial agents of empire in the contact zone. Like much of Duncan’s fiction, however, The Pool in the Desert is also specifically Anglo-Indian. Duncan left Canada in the late 1880s. Goodreads helps you keep track of books you want to read. Start by marking “Sara Jeannette Duncan: Novelist of Empire” as Want to Read: Want to Read saving… Want to Read. Currently Reading. Read. Sara Jeannette Duncan: by Thomas E. Tausky. Other editions.