A Hertfordshire Police spokesperson said: ‘Significant enquiries are continuing into the circumstances surrounding William’s murder and efforts are on-going to locate his body. ‘Three men, aged 18, 22 and 53 years old and a 52 year old woman, who are all from Hitchin, were arrested early this morning on suspicion of conspiracy to murder. They remain in police custody at this time.’ Richard Taylor previously told of his heartache that his father may never be given the beautiful dog the family had bought him as a gift. Angela Taylor (left) in happier times with her children M Hertfordshire Constabulary is the territorial police force responsible for policing the county of Hertfordshire in England. Its headquarters is in Welwyn Garden City. From 2011-2016 the force was headed by Chief Constable Andy Bliss, the current Chief Constable is Charlie Hall QPM. The force consists of over 3,900 police officers and staff, supported by more than 410 special constables. Hertfordshire Police said: “In every case we will try and establish the facts and get a full and thorough account and secure forensic evidence as quickly as we can but circumstances around each case, which are all different, may not permit us to do this immediately.” DCI Neil Esseen of Lancashire Constabulary said allegations were recorded either on a crime report, or on a log, dependent on the circumstances of the report. This is a robust, tried and tested policy that has been in place for some considerable time, and one which puts the needs of the victim at the centre of police activity. M
