Search the Scriptures, Illustrated: Modern Medicine and Biblical Personages

Robert B. Greenblatt

Summary
Since the Middle Ages Jews have regarded medicine as one of the most. Included in this beautifully illustrated volume of essays are sections that Published: 1930. Each of Jesus' seven signs illustrates some particular aspect of his divine authority, but. The two Biblical characters named Lazarus have sometimes been...
The modern historian may think he is searching for them but his activities taken as a whole do not suggest this. In fact, they rather suggest the Hebrew sense of recording and interpreting everything, because you never know which facts will be messages. The modern historian has, of course, no conscious thought of God, but the form of his work still suggests a search for somebody calling the shots. To make the point in another way, let us turn to Levi-Strauss. [11] If what he says about myth is valid, it evokes a world view which is essentially that of the cosmos as logos—which is to say, of co Search the Scriptures book.
