Four Seasons is scheduled to open Four Seasons Kyoto in Japan this Oct. 15. Designed by HBA, the property will also include 57 residences, designed in a traditional yet contemporary style, and four onsite eateries, including a sushi restaurant, brasserie, lounge and garden teahouse. Located in the former capital city of the Japanese Emperor, Kyoto, the property will have 123 rooms and 57 residences. Set within a traditional Japanese garden (shakusuien ikeniwa) dating back from the 12th-century, the property will have four F&B outlets: a brasserie, a traditional sushi shop (seating a maximum...
