Imperial Germany. Foundation of the Second German Empire (Second Reich) in 1871. The German Empire—often called the Second Reich to distinguish it from the First Reich, established by Charlemagne in 800—was based on two compromises. The first was between the king of Prussia and the rulers of the other German states, who agreed to accept him as the Kaiser (emperor) of a united Germany, provided they could continue to rule their states largely as they had in the past.
