The Day-breaking, If Not The Sun Rising Of The Gospel: With The Indians In New England

John Wilson John Eliot Thomas Shepard

All honor's mimic, all wealth alchemyalchemy figuratively, not the real thing. The speculative practice of alchemy involved a search for chemically turning base metals, such as iron, into highly valuable metals, such as gold. Thou, sun, art half as happy as we, In that the world's contracted thus. Thine age asks ease, and since thy duties be. To warm the world, that's done in warming us. Shine here to us, and thou art everywhere; This bed thy center is, these walls, thy sphere.
